

ESTABLISHED AUGUST 24, 1852.

The Intelligencer.

Capt. Danford to-morrow Night.
It was announced at the Republican meeting on Monday night that Capt. Danford would address the people at the Court House and out of the evening is favorable. There is a general desire on this side of the river to hear the Captain speak on the eve of the day. The prominent part to be taken at Washington last winter as a member of the investigating committee that smoked out Belknap, the honorable course he pursued towards Speaker Kerr as a member of that committee, his speech on the floor of the House in connection with the report of the Committee, have all awakened a desire among his many friends to hear him on the great issues that are now absorbing public attention in this exciting canvass. No doubt, therefore, there will be an immense gathering at the Court House to hear him.

A Poorly "Put Up" Job.
The Register of yesterday prints a Democratic pyramid, constructed out of the following States: viz. Indiana, Oregon, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Connecticut and West Virginia.

To show how the Register puts up jobs on the public we may mention the fact that the State of Oregon has as yet held no election this year, and the Connecticut vote elections held the other day, (the only elections that have occurred in 1876 in that State) showed Republican gains. Oregon has not held an election since 1874, and the vote stood in that year Democrats 9,713, Republicans 9,163, Independents 6,332. In 1870 the vote of the State was, Democrats 11,723, Republicans 11,695.

So much for the Democratic pyramid. The Republican pyramid is boistered in the same reckless manner. It is made to consist of Ohio, Maine and Vermont. The State of Colorado is left out. The table editor does not know that Colorado has gone Republican, and he will continue not to know it until after the Presidential election.

The facts in regard to the elections of the last two weeks can be put in very small compass and made very clear to the ordinary intellect. They are, first, that in Colorado the Republicans overcame a Democratic majority of 2,163, and have elected their whole ticket, including State officers, member of Congress, State Legislature, two United States Senators and three Presidential electors. Second, that in Ohio they have increased their majority from 5,500 in 1875 to 8,500 this year, gaining five Congressmen in the election. Third, they have in Indiana reduced the Democratic majority of 1874 from 17,000 to about 5,000, and gained 4 Congressmen, making the delegation from that State to now stand 9 Republicans and 4 Democrats. Fourth, as regards West Virginia, the Dutch have simply taken Halls. The State showed in the Congressional election of 1874 a Democratic majority of 9,383, and it shows that majority (perhaps) now. So what is there in that fact to crow over? As things look, the Democratic majority in the Legislature of West Virginia will not be any larger, if at large, this year than last.

So much for the job set up by the Register in the shape of political pyramids. Moral: Don't put up your jobs until you have acquired some material to build them with.

The European News.
The news from Europe looks warlike this morning, as indeed it has looked for several days past. There is no doubt of the fact that Russia is seeking a pretext for war with Turkey. Her traditional view and policy of ultimate empire over the Danubian provinces of Turkey are so well known throughout Europe that none of the Great Powers are deceived to her real intentions. The quotations in the breadstuffs market yesterday, and the gold market, show that war between Russia and Turkey is looked upon as quite possible.

In this country our people have very little idea of the fire that burns in the breasts of the Russian people for war with Turkey in consequence of the Turkish atrocities in Serbia. We notice a very significant letter republished in this country from the London Times of Sept. 30, written by an Englishman at Moscow, which shows so vividly how the Russians feel in regard to the pending difficulty between that country and the Porte that we are induced to make the following extract from it:

"There is no news in Moscow except with regard to Serbia, which is the all absorbing topic of the day. Every day's mail brings to Russia takes away volunteers as to be probably true. Volunteers are pouring out daily, not only from Moscow and St. Petersburg, but also from the towns of the interior. Russia, Karlovo, and many other towns have sent their contingents. Crowds assemble at the railway stations from which the volunteers take their departure and send them away to the sounds of the national anthem, hymns, prayers, and cheers. A banner had been sent to Serbia, bearing the words 'Russia is with you.' It was carried to the front by a Russian soldier. Two, if not three, iron field churches have been sent from Moscow. A party of celebrated Tchaikoff composers have gone with one of these churches. I see another set are going to follow. In the trains, railway stations, railway carriages, restaurants, etc., men are accounted by persons of both sexes carrying tin money-boxes with the red cross painted on them. Such boxes are taken up at the railway stations, in many of the restaurants, and in the trains. It is rampant against England, and things go much further, it may get to be an unpleasant affair in Russia, but I do not see any immediate cause of alarm. The Moscow Gazette with bitter satire, has found out the English on having been committed in Bulgaria, deeds which the popular opinion is catching the infection from the English papers, but which were actually by the English papers to Russian sources, and, consequently, treated

The Feeling at the National Republican Headquarters.
(N. Y. Post Monday evening.)
The National Committee are frequently applied to for estimates of the election for Presidential electors. They decline to make estimates, as it is no part of their work to outdo the Democratic committee in brag or bluff. So far as the States of Wisconsin, California and New York are concerned the members of the committee feel no sort of doubt that all of them will be Republican. The reported "accessions" of Republicans to the Democratic party are considered weak reasons, and are not to be taken into account. The Republicans who might be induced to vote with what promised to be the winning side. But it is considered safe by prominent Republicans who know the condition of North and South Carolina, New York, New Jersey and California, to include these States as well as Wisconsin, as being spoken of as doubtful in enumerations of those States that will be certainly Republican. The news from Wisconsin to-day is better than it has been at any previous time during the campaign. Mr. Cornell of the State Committee says that he has no doubt that Wisconsin will be Republican.

WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, October 17.—The President was visited to-day by a delegation headed by Senator Patterson, of South Carolina, and representatives of the South Carolina Republican club, who made a statement to the President in corroboration of the information already given by Gov. Chamberlain, Senator Patterson and other representatives of the Republican organizations in that State. Mr. Terry also presented a series of resolutions expressive of the situation of affairs there, as heretofore represented to the President and Attorney General. The President, after listening to the views of the delegation, remarked that consideration would be given to the statement they presented.

The depositories at Buffalo, N. Y., and Pittsburgh, Pa., having been discontinued from the 30th of September, holders of registered bonds on which the interest had heretofore been paid at either of the above named places are requested to give notice without delay to the Register of the Treasury as to the place where they desire the interest on the bonds made payable for the future. The interest may be paid by the Treasurer of the United States at Washington or by the Assistant Treasurer at either of the following named places: New York, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis.

At a Cabinet meeting to-day every department of the Government was represented. There was a full and earnest discussion of the condition of affairs in South Carolina, as represented to the Government by the Chief Executive of that State. The views of the members of the Cabinet, acting on information officially given to the General Government, were that prompt action was necessary for the purpose of dispiriting the rebel clubs and other bodies organized, as alleged, against the peace of the State and the rights of voters, and to the immediate preparation of the following proclamation, which was issued to-day:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
A PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS, It has been satisfactorily shown to me that insurrection and violence exist in several counties of the State of South Carolina, and that certain combinations of men against the law exist in many counties of said State known as "ride clubs," "ride up and down" and "night in arms" and other peaceable and law-abiding organizations which through forbidden by the laws of the State, cannot be controlled or suppressed by ordinary course of justice; and

WHEREAS, It is provided in the Constitution of the United States that the United States shall protect every State in this Union, on application of the Legislature, or of the Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened against domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, In pursuance of the above provisions of the Constitution, and in order to suppress insurrection or causing the laws to be duly executed; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of said State is unable to meet the emergency and the Executive of said State under section 4 of article 4 of the laws passed in pursuance thereof has therefore made due application to me in the premises for such part of the military force of the United States as may be necessary to suppress insurrection and citizens thereof against any domestic violence, and to enforce due execution of the laws, and to preserve peace, and in the judgment of the President, to use military force for the purpose aforesaid, he has forthwith caused the necessary orders and instructions to be issued to the troops under his command to suppress insurrection and return peaceably to their respective homes within a limited time;

Now, therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do hereby make a proclamation and command all persons to obey the laws of the United States, and to suppress insurrection and return peaceably to their respective homes within a limited time; and Further Particulars.

CHARLOTTE, October 17.—Intense excitement has prevailed here all day regarding the Cainhoy affair. The bodies of the three white men, who were killed by the negroes, were recovered to-day. They had been stripped of their clothing and were also hacked and mutilated in a shocking manner. One of the wounded whites died this morning, and it is feared that several others will die. One dead negro was found in the street. He is supposed to have been killed by the first volley fired by the black militia from the bushes. It is not thought that any other negro was either killed or wounded. An armed force of whites is guarding the white families in the village. The blackheads disappeared from the neighborhood.

Lake Steamer Burned.
DETROIT, October 17.—The steamer Daniel Ball, of the East Saginaw and Bay City line, was burned about five o'clock this evening while approaching Bay City. The passengers and crew were all saved. The Ball was valued at $15,000; insurance about half that sum.

Cannon, Torchlight and Fire-works.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 16.—The Democrats celebrated their victory to-night by a cannon, torchlight, and a display of fireworks. Mr. Williams, the Governor elect, who arrived here this afternoon was escorted from his hotel to the State House square by the Williams Guards and other companies bearing torches, where speeches were made by Mr. Williams, Governor Hendricks, and others.

WHAT MR. WILLIAMS SAID.
The following is a summary of Mr. Williams' speech:
"My fellow citizens, I neither sought, desired or expected the nomination for the office to which I have been elected. It was the free will offering of a great party which I appreciate in the highest degree. The people have approved and endorsed that nomination by electing me. I feel thankful to them for it and will endeavor to make it a fitting return in my power, and the only return which they will accept—a faithful discharge of the duties of the office. I have had a long and important connection with the legislative department of the State, and it is gratifying to me to know that I have been able to do something which I have passed, and in which case anything has escaped examination, no fault has been found with, not even a criticism, of my legislative record. After the close of that legislative service it is very gratifying to me to receive from the hands of the people the highest elective honor which a citizen of this State can receive. While I express my highest appreciation of the honor which has been done me, I would not offer one word or sentiment in the spirit of exultation. My full understanding of the responsibilities that I am to assume, as well as the proprieties of this occasion, make it impossible for me to indulge in any display of emotion. During the past I have been the object of political and personal criticism, yet I wish to assure you that I come out of the struggle with kind feelings to all. No personal or partisan bitterness will embarrass me in the discharge of the duties of this high office as the representative of the whole people.

My fellow citizens, I congratulate you on the result in Indiana, in respect to its influence upon the National contest now pending. By both parties, and by the people of other States it has been felt that the result in Indiana would have a great influence every-where upon the Presidential contest, as the national result involves as I believe, considerations of purity of the government, economy in expenditures and the fraternal relations between two great sections. I am greatly rejoiced that the State which has been my home for many years should have been so influential upon the side which I believe will promote the honor of our country and the prosperity and happiness of the people."

From the Indian Country.
CHICAGO, October 17.—A special to Tribune from the camp on Amphibious rock, Black Hills, October 15th, via Fort Lincoln on the 16th, says: Gen. Merritt with all the best horses of the six cavalry left here this morning, taking sixty selected men from the second and twelve from the third cavalry, ten days' rations, one hundred and fifty rounds of carbine and twelve of pistol and Winchester ball, on route for the fork of the Cheyenne river, where a large band of Indians led by Crazy Horse and other hostiles are reported in winter camp. The troops are in three detachments, officered by Captain Beebe, Major and Lieutenant Hall, by Captain Monahan and by Major and Lieutenant King and Smead. No wagons were taken, and the rations are carried by pack mules. The four hundred fresh horses which reached here the day before yesterday with recruits for the fifth will be used in remounting the old soldiers of this regiment. Major West accompanied Gen. Merritt's flying column.

The body was found by a man on route for the fork of the Cheyenne river, where a large band of Indians led by Crazy Horse and other hostiles are reported in winter camp. The troops are in three detachments, officered by Captain Beebe, Major and Lieutenant Hall, by Captain Monahan and by Major and Lieutenant King and Smead. No wagons were taken, and the rations are carried by pack mules. The four hundred fresh horses which reached here the day before yesterday with recruits for the fifth will be used in remounting the old soldiers of this regiment. Major West accompanied Gen. Merritt's flying column.

SENTENCED TO SIX MONTHS SUSPENSION.
LONDON, October 17.—A special to the Times, from Barcelona, says, the liberal organ, La Tribuna, has been sentenced to six months' suspension for having failed to publish an article written by Senor Castelar. Throughout Spain the liberals are now oppressed by the government which daily becomes narrower in tone and moderate in sympathies. The arraignment of the priesthood increases daily.

The case is very mysterious, and the identity of the prisoner will not probably be determined till Dr. Mosher, of Sioux City, arrives. Photographs of the man have been sent for.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE TURKISH WAR.

Russia at War With Turkey.
LONDON, October 18.—The Full Mail Gazette contends that Russia is at present actually at war with Turkey and that any further efforts at a diplomacy are useless.

SICKNESS CAUSED BY HEAT.
BREMEN, October 17.—The unseasonable heat is causing much sickness. Last week an outbreak of the plague occurred at Aragnolevich which killed three hundred and eighteen persons. Their clothes and bedding were burned and the ground ploughed up, when the pestilence ceased as suddenly as it appeared.

A GREAT WAR.
LONDON, October 17.—The correspondence of the Times at Belgrade, discussing the situation, says that every diplomatic agent here believes that we are on the eve of a great Eastern war. The only difference of opinion among them is as to whether it will commence in the spring or almost immediately. All outward indications seem to favor the latter idea, which would give Russia and Serbia great advantages.

THE ACTION OF AUSTRIA.
Strasbourg, October 17.—The Sunday semi-official intelligence received at Strasbourg is that the Emperor of Austria had informed the Czar that Austria would remain neutral and would make no objection to any certain limited occupation of one of the Christian provinces of Turkey.

THE WAR RECORDED AS UNAVOIDABLE.
The St. Petersburg Journal, semi-official paper, says, there are indications that the people of Constantinople regard the war as unavoidable and welcome Russia's decision to finish the matter without delay. The meeting of Russian statesmen, at Liradia, indicates a crisis in our politics. This meeting represents official Russia assembled in view of Bosphorus and the seat of war.

A St. Petersburg letter to the Times dated October 16th, says: "Doubtless the general impression here is that Russia is on the eve of the long wished for struggle with Turkey."

A special from Vienna states that the English and French governments, especially the former, have decided to propose to Austria a six weeks' armistice. Austria is inclined to do likewise, and has asked Germany's opinion, which, however, has not yet been given. Italy, on being pressed by England to give a definite reply, says that it does not want in any way to anticipate Austria's decision as to whether the armistice as disadvantageous to Serbia.

A telegram from Bucharest announces that a contract has been concluded between the Roumanian and Russian railways companies by which the former undertake to hold in readiness, at the disposal of Russia, military trains to transport 4,000 troops daily.

The Full Mail Gazette publishes a special from Berlin which says: The Great Powers have now reverted to Lord Derby's earlier proposal to conclude an armistice for six weeks without conditions, in order to devise during that time a treaty of peace. There is no truth in the report of German mobilization.

Col. Detachoff, mentioned in a Berlin special to the Times as being on a mission to Austria on behalf of Russia, is the Czar's Adjutant from Vienna says: It is believed, in well informed circles here, that an alliance between Austria and Russia is on the point of being concluded, according to which Russia, in event of Turkey refusing a short armistice would enter on military intervention while Austria would occupy the Turkish provinces but should evade lead to the overthrow of the Ottoman government, Russia would yield to Austria such extension of her territory as she might claim on the grounds of commercial or general interests.

The Times, in a leading article, points out that peace or war depends on a prompt reply by the Porte to Russia's demand for a six weeks' armistice. The Times repeats its argument in favor of the Powers urging Turkey to accept the Russian demand.

No Further Aid Needed.

SAVANNAH, October 17.—The subjoined letter from the Mayor of this city and the acting President of the Benevolent Association announces that further aid is not needed:

CITY OF SAVANNAH,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, October 17.
To Our Benefactors Throughout the Union:
It is impossible to express adequately the deep sense of gratitude felt by the people of Savannah for the generous benevolence which has been extended to us from all parts of the United States, in our supreme hour of distress and destitution. It has soothed many a dying pillow and relieved many an aching heart. Such deeds do more to bind the inhabitants of this land in sympathy and sympathy than all the political theories that were ever advanced. All that we can now return to our benefactors are our heartfelt thanks and sincere prayers that the Almighty may bless and prosper the liberality of all who sympathize with the people who have so readily come to our rescue, and long shield them from pestilence that walketh in darkness and the destruction that wasteth at noonday. Justice and candor require us to announce at this time that by reason of the large liberality of subscription in money and supplies already afforded to us, we are no longer in immediate need, and we therefore ask our friends everywhere to cease for the present their charitable contributions. If necessity for assistance shall again among us, we will thankfully accept of it from them for relief.

Mayor of Savannah.

The friends of Ten Broeck, seeing by Associated Press dispatches that you desire to match Tom Ochiltree against Ten Broeck in a race of four miles, to be run in the spring of 1877, have authorized me to say that such a match can be made. ST. LOUIS, October 17.—Nothing definite occurred to-day in the Frank James case. Several men were taken with the prisoners. Some of them thought him to be, as he claimed to be, John Goodwin of Louisville, while others think he is Cal Carter, of Texas, one of the alleged Atterville train robbers. The case is very mysterious, and the identity of the prisoner will not probably be determined till Dr. Mosher, of Sioux City, arrives. Photographs of the man have been sent for.
